

THE LUXURY LIST

The human eye is a remarkable thing. Since each of us sees beauty differently, we salute a range of styles, from light & cool to sleek & edgy

1 EARTHLY PLEASURE A space-age chair, aptly named Apollo, is fit for an astronaut, a god, or you. $2,145. By Patrick Norguet, at Totem, NYC. 212-925-5506. totemdesign.com.

2 WAKE-UP CALL Links travel alarm clock. See page 144.

3 GRACIAS AND MERCI Mexico's national flower inspired Lalique's Dahlia vase, $2,200, from France. 800-993-2580.

PHOTOGRAPHED BY MARK WEISS AND MARY ELLEN BARTLEY
PRODUCED BY BROOKE STODDARD AND MELISSA FELDMAN

"MY LUXURY FANTASY? A LARGE BATHTUB WITH A GARDEN VIEW IN THE CITY"

—BENJAMIN NORIEGA-ORTIZ
INTERIOR DESIGNER

66

66 THE REFLECTIVE LIFE This might be what Shelley meant by "hectic red." Whatever it is, we're wild about it. Hollywood Regency console, $3,200, of painted wood and Lucite with mirror insets, by Jonathan Adler. 877-287-1910. Hanging above it is a gold convex constellation mirror, $3,392, by Thomas Pheasant for Baker. White porcelain vessel, $285 to $650, at Repertoire, NYC. 212-219-8159. In the background: Luxe calf in Cherry. Edelman Leather.

67 TIME AND AGAIN For your bedside table—especially if you're an insomniac—what could be more appealing than a clock that bears the name of the Greek god of sleep, Hypnos? $385. By Emmanuel Babled for Baccarat.

68 CLASSIC COMEBACK Now's the time to reread Le Rouge et le Noir, seated in Jean Prouvé's newly reissued 1930 Cité armchair, available in black or red, $2,125. Natural leather straps form the armrests. Vitra. 888-278-2855. vitra.com.

69 PACIFIC OVERTURES Stock up on these Borneo woven rattan ottomans—every one is different. $260 each. Eziba.

67

68

69