Let Kiki de Montparnasse spice up your stay at the Mondrian Hotel

December 21, 2009 | 6:00 am

The Mondrian Pop on the Sunset Strip is reloading its RELOAD retail series with a Kiki de Montparnasse pop-up shop, now open through Feb. 28, stocking the brand's luxury lingerie loungewear and Romantic Concierge service featuring Kiki "specialists," who will assist browsers in planning romantic getaways.

Kiki de Montparnasse, which debuted its romantic concept shop in New York's SoHo, carries bath and body goods with natural aphrodisiacs along with vintage erotica and gifts such as 24-karat gold handcuffs. The boutique, that also has a location on Melrose Avenue, is named for photographer Man Ray's muse and seeks to recapture the elegance of a Parisian boudoir during the prewar era of Henry Miller and Anaïs Nin.

The Mondrian's interior designer Benjamin Noriega-Ortiz had a hand in the Kiki de Montparnasse temporary boutique with touches such as a black feather pendant light, mauve pillows and French toile wall coverings.

The Kiki pop-up will also carry a hotel-appropriate lounge collection that can go from poolside to an evening dinner.

The Mondrian will offer special Kiki de Montparnasse packages starting this holiday season through Valentine's Day.
